ATLANTIS is an interdisciplinary journal devoted to critical and creative writing in English or French on the topic of women. The Editorial Board welcomes manuscripts embodying all viewpoints on women's studies. Submissions should be accompanied by a stamped, self-addressed envelope and should be no more than 10,000 words in length. Book and film reviews, photography and graphic work will also be considered for inclusion in ATLANTIS.

ATLANTIS est une revue interdisciplinaire consacrée à des études critiques et originales touchant la femme et rédigées en français ou en anglais. Le comité de rédaction invite ses collaborateurs eventuels à lui soumettre leurs articles, aussi variés soient-ils, reliés au but de la revue. Toute texte proposé doit comprendre au plus 10,000 mots et être accompagné d'une enveloppe affranchie, portant nom et adresse de son auteur. Critiques de livres et films, photographies et illustrations diverses peuvent faire partie de la Revue ATLANTIS.

ATLANTIS is published twice a year. Subscriptions are available at $5.00 per annum for individuals and $9.50 for institutions.

Subscriptions and manuscript submissions should be addressed to:

ATLANTIS
Box 294
Acadia University
Wolfville
Nova Scotia

Copyright ATLANTIS: A Women's Studies Journal/ Revue des Études Sur La Femme 1976
BEVERLY J. RASPORICH
Child-women and Primitives in the Fiction of Alice Munro

JENNIFER R. WAELTI-WALTERS
The Changing Face of Age

JOAN McFARLAND
Economics and Women: A Critique of the Scope of Traditional Analysis and Research

DEBORAH KAETZ
International Women's Year: Was it Worth the Fuss? An Interview with Muriel Duckworth

TESS REDMOND
Horses of the Sun

EDWARD RYAN
Family Law and Human Equality

MAUREEN BAKER
Academic Queen Bees

HELEN PORTEBFENKO
February Morning

HILARY THOMPSON
Vaginal Accessibility: Toward a Typology of Female Characters in Literature

BARBARA ROBERTS
Daughters of the Empire and Mothers of the Race: Caroline Chisholm and Female Emigration in the British Empire

DONNA E. SMYTH
Genesis Reprise
Book Reviews

Elizabeth Brewster, In Search of Eros by Kathleen Tudor

Susan Brownmiller, Against Our Will: Men, Women and Rape by Jane Ursel

International Women's Year Secretariat, To See Ourselves: Five Views on Canadian Women by Sandy Arthurs

Isabel Basset, The Parlour Rebellion, Profiles in the Struggle for Women's Rights by Marie Lavigne

Marcia Millman and Rosabeth Moss Kanter (eds.), Another Voice by Dianne Looker

Poems

CHRISTENE FULTON
Lydia

JEAN HILLABOLD
Clarty-in-the-Kitchen

MARGARET RANDALL
Motherhood

Atlantis was an ancient kingdom, an island in the Atlantic, which disappeared during an earthquake. Fabulous stories are told about the beauty of the people who lived there and the kind of civilization they created. We take Atlantis as a symbol of the lost kingdom which women are striving to rediscover by discovering themselves.

L'Atlantide, royaume du temps jadis, disparut pendant un tremblement de terre. Cette île, perdue sous les ondes de l'Atlantique, était renommée dans les légendes pour la beauté de ses gens et leur civilisation. Pour nous, l'Atlantide est un symbole de ce royaume perdu que les femmes essayent de retrouver, tout en retrouvant leur propre identité.
This issue of ATLANTIS was published with the assistance of many private donors and a grant from the International Women's Year Fund, Department of the Secretary of State.